Summer-time - when the living is ea-sy

Summer is generally a quiet time of year but this didn't stop our Society organising or attending many events over the past few months.

Many of you will have seen on National and International News the finding of the remains of King Richard III. We are fortunate to have in our Society a member, Geoffrey Pool, who is an expert on British history so, in April, he gave us a presentation on the life of King Richard III at the Red Lobster Restaurant in Sarasota.

Geoffrey Pool

The presentation was preceded by dinner and was attended by many people who were very impressed with Geoffrey's in-depth knowledge on the subject.

Also, Geoff's wife, Olwen Hughes Pool – an acclaimed artist both here and in the UK, was asked to document with stories and line drawings the events of Richard's reburial. This is just a small example of the wealth of talent we have in our Society.

Many of you are familiar with the 'Kiss' sculpture or, to give it its correct name, 'Unconditional Surrender'. Again, the expertise of Olwen Hughes Pool was called upon and, in May, she presented a copy of her line drawing to the County Commission as well as a drawing of the new Gulf Gate Library to the Director of Libraries and Historical Resources for Sarasota, Sarabeth Kalajian. These presentations were made at Historic Spanish Point.

Also in May our Society, represented by Kathy Champley, Meg Larrabee and Judy Sherpa, took part at the Memorial Day Service in Arcadia. This event occurs annually to commemorate the passing of the young trainee cadets in World War II, many of whom were British.

After the ceremony, we enjoyed lunch at the quaint, Victorian-styled restaurant, Mary Margaret's Tea and Biscuits, in downtown Arcadia

SUNDAY BRUNCHES

The last Sunday of the month during June, July and August we met for our ever popular Sunday Brunches, mainly at Turtles Restaurant on Siesta Key. We seem to grow in number every month and it is great opportunity for members and guests to meet and share news and vacation stories. It also gives a chance for people to express their views and suggestions as well as learn what's coming up in the Society.

The venue for September is yet to be arranged so let us know your suggestions.

If you're quick, you may still attend the North American Festival of Wales in Columbus, Ohio between Thursday, September 3 and Sunday, September 6, 2015.

This event is a wonderful showcase for Wales with a Grand Banquet, Gymanfa Ganu, competitions, classes, workshops and many gifts at the Market Place.

On-site registrations will be available from 5 pm on Wednesday September 2, 2015 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel but check out their website: nafow.org or their Facebook Page to establish firm details.
